

I. Welcome

Here at Long Island Alliance Church (LIAC) Chinese Education Center, our goal is to provide a high-quality learning experience to each enrolled student to learn Chinese in a safe and loving environment. On behalf of our teachers and staff who are eager to nurture the next generation, we want to express our appreciation that you have enrolled your child(ren) to learn Chinese at our Center and thank you for your confidence in us. We hope that this brief introduction can help you know more about our Center.

II. Who We Are

The Chinese Education Center is part of Long Island Alliance Church, a nonprofit organization under the strict regulation of the US government. We operate under the high moral standards of the Bible and by the love of God. We noticed that children from Chinese immigrant families are not able to receive a comprehensive Chinese education in public schools in the US, thereby missing the opportunity to learn high-quality Chinese. We pray and hope that we can fill this gap to enable our students to grow healthier and to live a meaningful and happy life.
